Illegal Aliens—Part II

Proving the point that we attempted to make in this column last week—that the illegal alien problem is just the tip of the iceberg on the local crime scene—let's update last week's item.

In it, you'll remember, we told how 3 illegal aliens had been apprehended in Chula Vista, returned to Baja California after being processed, recaptured the next day in Lomita Village as they (the same 3) were burglarizing a home at the San Diego-Lemon Grove boundary, and turned over to juvenile authorities who were to hold them 30 days.

One of the group suffered a cut on the hand during his latest apprehension. The same day he was transported to a hospital for treatment. He escaped.

Later, he was caught again. This time in a house in University City.

The paperwork finally caught up with the trio. Fingerprints put the aliens in Mt. Helix at the scene of two burglaries.

In one, $1,500 in jewelry was missing and in the same area, $3,400 in valuables were taken from another home.

The mode of operation in several other burglaries in the Mt. Helix area indicates that the same trio may have been a major crime wave on the affluent hilltop.

During investigations there it was discerned that one generous Mt. Helix family had given employment to an alien and had set him up in a spare room with only saloon-type swinging doors separating the alien from the rest of the house.

The couple even gave him a stove and refrigerator so that he could prepare his food as he wanted. The alien is now gone and so are many valuable articles. Detectives are still trying to ascertain what loss the couple actually suffered.

Mt. Helix appears to attract aliens.

Large stands of land which need caretaking is made for Mexicans most of whom are familiar with land care. And usually his price is right and the transitory nature of his situation more than likely rules out workman's compensation and insurance payments. That creates a law breaker of the employer. It is likely that small losses are not reported as a result.

The sheriff's office is not primarily concerned with citizens' taxpaying habits. Protection of life and property is the major concern.

For that reason the sheriff's Lemon Grove office has warned those who employ these transients that they are exposing themselves to theft losses of varying amounts.

And some of the recent ones have been substantial.

Russky Nuclear Warheads In U.S. Claim Said False

By S. Williams

Claims made by a 56-year old Washington lawyer that Russian missiles nuclear warheads and submarines are located in or around the United States threatening the country's security have been refuted or rejected as preposterous by the local offices of California congressmen.

Dr. Peter David Beter, former presidential appointee as Counsel to the U. S. Export-Import Bank, reported in a flyer recently received by this newspaper that "Nuclear War I (is) to hit U.S. soon." He also urged the public to ask Congressmen and Senators for a congressional investigation in open session on TV during which his claims could be proven.

According to the office of Congressman Bob Wilson similar information is periodically received from Dr. Beter but it has not been responded to. A file on Dr. Beter, however, has been opened at Wilson's Washington office.

Another file exists in the office of Congressman Van Deelen which had double-checked with Dr. Beter and the Armed Forces Services Committee. The committee insisted that the allegations were false. Dr. Beter insisted that he had good sources of information but could not compromise them.

The offices of Sen. Hayakawa and Congressman Burgen had not heard about Dr. Beter's allegations; but information was received by the U. S. Coast Guard in San Diego and forwarded to Navy Intelligence.

According to an unnamed senatorial aide in Washington, D.C. Dr. Beter might be associated with right-winged political groups and has probably been investigated by the Defense Intelligence Agency.

An official from the British Embassy's Information Department was not able to verify Dr. Beter's additional claims that he had furnished exact coordinates of multiple nuclear warheads around the British Isles to the British government.

Dr. Beter, absent from Washington for an unspecified period, could not be reached for comment.

Lights, Siren Stolen

It's possible that the rotating red lights you see and the siren you hear may be that of the Spring Valley Fire Department.

But it won't necessarily be an official vehicle.

A thief removed the light-siren bar from the top of a department staff car one night last week while it was parked at the residence of S.V. FD Inspector Richard A. Sherard.

The staff car is assigned to the fire station at 905 Gillespie dr.

It is uncertain as to what use the light-siren bar can be put by the thief.

Strong Weed Abatement Ordinance Proposed by Lemon Grove Council

The agenda looked formidable but the Lemon Grove City Council meeting Monday was one of the shorter ones. It was over soon after 8:30.

The only shorter one was the special meeting of August 8.

A number of issues were agreed upon. One, the next meeting which would fall on Labor Day was declared an adjourned meeting for Wednesday, September 7.

The council held over for the next meeting a discussion on restructuring of Law Enforcement Administration.

Mayor Jim Dorman, still in Great Britain, was named voting delegate to the League of California Cities. During Dorman's absence, Mayor Pro-tem Robert Burns presides.

Resolutions

Mayor Burns read four resolutions which were passed unanimously by the 4-man council. The council:

Approved designating the L.G. Fire District as City Fire Department and officers as officials.

Adopting a select system of streets (for gas tax funds). Requesting the Board of Supervisors to transfer Park Land Dedication Funds to the City for park and recreation use.

Announce intention to grant a Gas and Electric Franchise. This matter is to be heard September 19 at which officials of the SD Gas & Electric will probably make a presentation.

Then there was the first reading of a strong weed abatement ordinance. It would declare green substances, such as tumbleweeds before they dry, a nuisance and hazard. The second reading will be September 7 at which time the council may approve the ordinance.

Church Asks Waiver

A request for a waiver of certain conditions for improvements proposed by the Central Baptist Church of L.G. at Central and College avenues was read.

No representative of the church appeared and the material submitted appeared to be deficient in detail. City Clerk Maggie Reilly was instructed to advise the appellants of the situation.

Mayor Burns proposed guidelines for appointing a coordinator for the city's eventual recreation programs. Lack of coordination of controlling the use of local parks indicated the need for such a coordinator. Councilman Doherty asked for citizens' input and to separate recreation from social services. This will be discussed further at the next meeting.

Meanwhile, a request was made for use of the L.G. Park for youth soccer games on a daily basis. Permission was granted with the understanding that it could be withdrawn. It appeared that none knew the schedule of events at the park which accented the need for a coordinator.

The vote was 3-1 for soccer with Burns voting against it. He explained that he was voting against the mechanics of the park system operation... not against soccer. He suggested naming one of the candidates who was an unsuccessful candidate for council but didn't indicate a preference.

Burns on Sanitation

Mayor Burns appointed himself representative of Zone 3 Commission Department of Sanitation and Flood Control for the lack of any other volunteer. He also discussed the need for advertising for bids for a cover for the L.G. Community Center patio. A bid for $5,000 was in hand. At the $5,000 level such purchases must go to bid.

A file of applicants for city manager is being set up at City Hall. The file is restricted to use by councilmen so that they may get a better handle of the screening process.

Councilman Dale Bailey, representative to CPO reported that CPO sees Lemon Grove with a population of 23,500 in 1985 and 23,000 in 1995. He says he asked CPO whether or not the city's slogan... "best climate on earth"... meant anything.

Mayor Burns introduced Councilman Akihiko Ohga of Koganei, Japan (near Tokyo). Koganei, said Burns, is about the size of Lemon Grove. It has 4.25 sq. miles and a population of 100,000. Councilmen, 26 in all, get $12,000 each year. The city contracts for its fire and police services.

Ohga is guest at the Burns home during his 3-day stay in San Diego.

Drug Sweeps to Eliminate Drug-Abusers on Mt. Helix

A wag suggested a sign for Mt. Helix park:

"Come on Vacation Go Back on Probation"

45 persons were picked up in 4 drugs sweeps atop Mt. Helix Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The public park on which the large white cross rests has been growing in importance to the area drug culture in recent weeks, police said.

The sweeps were conducted by 25 officers of the L.G. office of the Sheriff's Department; specialists of the San Diego Police Department, and members of the Integrated Narcotics Task Force. The operations were under the direction of Sheriff's Captain George Dodson, commander of the Sheriff's Lemon Grove office.

Of the 45 persons apprehended, 10 were juveniles.

Some of the suspects were cited under the new marijuana law which makes small amounts of marijuana (an ounce or less) a misdemeanor. The juveniles were either turned over to parents or cited.

"We intend to pay attention to the Mt. Helix park until it is cleaned up," Captain Dodson said. "While the problem has been chronic over a period of time, lately there has been a noticeable increase in drug activity."

"Previously, we could handle it with our patrols making an average of 10 drug-related arrests a month."

"Recently, the drug abuse situation has become more serious. So have the problems which attend such activities. Law-abiding citizens were being harassed and parkers blocked the roadway at times. A growing number of complaints dictated the decision to clean the park up," he said. "We'll have surprise visits as long as we find law-breakers there."

Dodson said that most of those picked up were area residents.

The cleanup at Balboa Park recently may have directed some of the drug freaks to Mt. Helix.

It that is so, they're going to have to find another locale. Dodson said that the hilltop would continue to be an area of prime importance to peace officers until residents who want to peacefully assemble in the park could do so without harassment.

Those listed on the police blotter included:

Rae Hardy, Jeffrey Somma, Twila Green, Richard Vigil, Keith Dagan, Kenneth Spears, and Daniel Carroll.

Governor Brown To Picnic in SD

Governor Jerry Brown will be a special guest in the South Bay on Sunday, August 28 at Swiss Park.

He will be attending the annual "thank-you" picnic being held for volunteers and their immediate families who have assisted Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin and Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh in their election campaigns.

This annual event will mark a "first" by Governor Brown to this area of California and will give those interested an opportunity to meet with him in person.

A barbecue lunch will be served beginning at noon along with a chance to shake hands with the Governor. There is a charge of $3 a person for extended family and friends.

Assemblyman Deddeh urged those who had not responded to their invitation to do so immediately by calling 422-6035

Rain Storm Total Tops 1 1/2 Inches

Rainfall had totaled 1.69 inches at noon Wednesday—and it was still raining.

The Tuesday, Wednesday storm was the first rain since the season started.

Minor flooding was reported in the Lemon Grove business section but damage, if any, was slight, as Lemon Grove firemen used water vacuums to dry out floors of several addresses on Broadway.

Last year, same date, the total rainfall was .06 inches. Rainfall season starts July 1.

Three S.V. Paramedics Save Heart Victim's Life

Spring Valley Paramedics Steve Perry, Phil Silva, and Mike Buss proved their worth Saturday afternoon as they saved the life of a 57 year old Spring Valley woman suffering from a heart attack.

Called at about 4 p.m. to the home of Mrs. Betty Tooth, 8745 Adriana st., Spring Valley, the medics found her in the early stages of an attack. The trio, according to Perry, took vital statistics such as blood pressure and electrocardiogram, and then started an intravenous feeding.

In about 20 minutes, the paramedics received word from back-up doctors at Grossmont Hospital the victim should be transported to the hospital.

Enroute to Paradise Valley Hospital, the victim had a massive arrest in the lower portion of her heart.

Perry said driver Mike Buss was ordered to pull to the side of the road to prepare drugs to offset the condition while he and Silva performed emergency heart procedures.

In about three minutes the paramedics had Mrs. Tooth's condition stabilized.

"It was the first major run for us," said Perry.

About 25 per cent of the 100 cases handled by the paramedics since they began operations July 1 have been critical.

Mrs. Tooth was listed in stable condition Monday at Paradise Valley Hospital.

FLOODING PROBLEM — Lemon Grove Fireman John Pitcher sweeps water from a storage shed owned by Dick Padgett. Heavy rains caused water to back up into Padgett's Appliance store as well as Bernadine's Hair World, 7918 Broadway.

What is a City?

Legislative Procedure

REGULAR MEETINGS. Regular meetings may be held within the city limits only at the place indicated by ordinance and at the time set by resolution; once convened such meeting may be adjourned to another location within the city if unusually large crowds or other circumstances warrant.

ADJOURNED MEETINGS. All meetings may be adjourned to a time, place and date certain, but not beyond the next regular meeting. Once adjourned the meeting may not be reconvened.

SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings may be called by the mayor or majority of councilmen on 24 hour notice, as set forth in Government Code section 54956. Only matters contained in the notice may be considered and no ordinances (other than urgency ordinances) may be adopted.

NOTICE. No notice of regular meetings is required; posted and mailed notice is required of special meetings and of meeting adjourned by city clerk; posted notice is required of all other adjourned meetings.

QUORUM. A majority of the council is sufficient to do business, and motions may be passed two to one if only three attend, but ordinances, resolutions granting franchises and payment of money require at least three affirmative votes.

ROLL CALL. There is never a legal requirements for roll call voting unless some member of the council demands it. However, since all ordinances, resolutions for franchises, and motions for the payment of money require the affirmative vote of at least three councilmen, most cities follow the roll call procedure for these particular enactments.

CORRECT LEGAL DOCUMENTS. Upon occasion, ordinances or resolutions are submitted in 'longhand' or in draft form with on-the-spot amendments. These preliminary papers may be re-typed in final form; such re-draft, when signed and attested, becomes the original and proper document to be retained in the files.

THE MINUTES. Minutes are the concern of the city clerk until presented to the council for approval; the council may then, by motion, make such corrections as conform to fact.

The minutes should be a clear and concise statement of the council actions, including the motions made and the vote thereon. Reasons for making a motion, council debate and audience reaction are usually irrelevant and may be included or omitted as the clerk and/or council may choose.

When ever the council acts in a quasi-judicial proceeding such as re-assessment or zoning matters, it is necessary to compile a complete summary of the testimony.

RULES. The council may establish its own rules, prescribe an agenda, limit debate and eject unruly persons. When a motion is made and seconded, it should be stated by the mayor before debate. A motion may not be withdrawn by the mover without the consent of the member seconding it and the approval of the council.

Motions out of order. The mayor may at any time, by majority consent of the members, permit a member to introduce an ordinance, resolution or motion out of the regular agenda order.

Division of Question. If the question contains two or more divisionable propositions, the mayor may, upon request of a member shall (unless appealed), divide the same.

NEXT: Voting.

There's An Answer

By Mr. and Mrs.
Norman Vincent Peale

Not Long to Live

Q. My problem is: The doctor tells me my wife can live an indefinite time or six months. I don't want her to know it. How can I cope with this problem? Please help me any way you can.

A. You will have to be as natural as you possibly can. Try to maintain a normal, loving attitude toward your wife. Devote yourself to making her happy and filling your lives full of kindness.

Do interesting things together in a normal, happy way as best you can. Let us send you, without charge, the story of Orville Kelly, who faces the same problem and has overcome it by his philosophy of "Make Today Count." It will help you, we are sure.

Anyone may have a copy by writing to us in care of Box 500, Pawling, NY, 12564.

Daughter in Cult

Q. My daughter is in a cult. She is so programmed to the leader's way of thinking that her father and I find our faith tested daily. We are now in the position of heathen whom she is trying to convert.

I am so concerned about the insidious influence on her and on thousands of other vulnerable young people as well.

What is your opinion of the various cults that are attracting so many of our young people?

A. It is true that some young people are so amateurish and sophomoric about their religion as actually to believe that they have all the answers.

Don't let your daughter give you a sense of guilt simply because she has been brainwashed. Keep on loving her. Don't argue with her. Pray for her until at length she grows up and hopefully wises up.

Abuse

Q. My husband abuses our children. He has these spells where he cannot control his anger. And we "watch out" because he'll always lash out and somebody always gets hurt.

There is so much hatred in our family. Some of our children hate their father with such a passion that I am afraid that tragedy will come. My husband's parents abused him and damaged him emotionally by their severe and harsh methods of disciplining. However, he refuses to accept that this is true, so I think I have no alternative but to leave him.

I really do love him, and it breaks my heart to even think of leaving him. Why is it that a person won't acknowledge that he even has a problem? I've searched and searched for an answer and have not found it.

A. Any father who is so lacking in emotional control obviously needs help. Whether you as a wife can help him is a question. But you can try.

For one thing, don't react with fear when he's angry. Rather than "watching out," meet him eye to eye and stand firm. When he comes to the point where he knows and will admit that he has a problem, then and only then can he really be helped.

Meanwhile, just love him as best you can and believe that he will come to his senses. Patient love, combined with quiet strength, has a strange power.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Vincent Peale

Norman V. Peale Opens National Prayer Phone

NEW YORK — A 24-hour telephone Prayer Line has been opened to link callers from across the nation in prayer partnerships with trained volunteers in New York.

By dialing 212/481-1050 at any time of the day or night, any day of the year, anyone in America will find a person to listen, discuss, pray and, if appropriate provide a referral to a local source of help.

This ministry is being provided by the Foundation for Christian Living, with headquarters in Pawling, NY, which opened the Prayer Line in mid-town Manhattan in June as part of the Norman Vincent Peale Telephone Center.

The Foundation established the Prayer Line because of the more than 80,000 written and telephoned requests for prayer it received last year. A 24-hour Dial-a-Prayer line at the Foundation's Pawling offices provides recorded prayers by Dr. Peale for those who call 914/855/5111.

"The recorded prayers provide an opportunity for people to hear a prayer by Dr. Peale himself," explained Mrs. Norman Vincent Peale, general secretary of the Foundation for Christian Living. "However, we felt that some would like to go beyond that and discuss their problems with prayer partners."

"It is obvious that prayer is becoming more a part of people's lives. The success of the Foundation's annual 24-hour Good Friday global Prayer Partnership is one example of this."

"Across the country there are increasing numbers of prayer groups of all kinds in nearly every community. So we are sure that the new Prayer Line will fill a real need that people have for prayer—and to have someone with whom to pray."

The nonprofit Foundation for Christian Living, established by Mrs. Peale nearly 40 years ago, distributes Dr. Peale's sermons and booklets and inspirational writings of others to more than 550,000 people in 120 countries.

It provides literature to veterans hospitals, prisons, nursing homes and institutions as well.

More than a year ago Dr. and Mrs. Peale launched a weekly question-and-answer column, THERE'S AN ANSWER which is distributed at no charge of more than 550 daily and weekly newspapers. Like all of the Foundation's other ministries, the Prayer Line is being financed by voluntary contributions, Mrs. Peale said.

Action Committee Calls Meeting At National U.

A community action meeting to "establish a stronger awareness of community education supporting assistance" is being called Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the National University, 4141 Camino del Rio S.

George Drops, director of career planning and counseling at the University, will discuss the need for stronger communications.

Jim Davis, assistant dean, will discuss a proposed teen youth-center. Davis is a former police officer and an expert in criminology.

Participants in the Tuesday meeting are to be representatives of assemblymen's offices, community organizations, law enforcement agencies and concerned citizens. Dave Diaz, coordinator of the University's career planning and counseling department said "Any effort to assist young people into more skilled opportunity fields is useful. It is hard to defeat initial objective if willingness and effort are present."

Farley, Ex-Con, to Speak at Faith Center

The Foundation of Praise has announced Bruce Farley will share his testimony at Christian Faith Centre at the El Cortez Hotel, on the evening of August 21.

Farley, long-time San Diego resident, civic leader, and chief executive officer of a major real estate corporation, was indicted, arrested, and later imprisoned after the collapse of the corporation.

Farley said, "While in prison, Christ visited my cell and I was miraculously born again. I realize now that super power and wealth is not where it's at — that God is the total answer."

Farley recently shared his testimony with the San Diego Padres and Los Angeles Dodgers Baseball teams in their pre-game devotionals, and was urged by both teams to continue sharing his testimony.

The public is cordially invited.

Love Loaf Campaigned By SV Friends Church

Little symbolic bread loaves placed on the table during dinner, piggy banks for people who like to do something about world hunger, was the project initiated Sunday by Spring Valley Friends Church Pastor Robert D. Farris.

The Rev. Farris, speaking to his congregation Sunday morning, asked church members to join the national "Love Loaf" program, a program which feeds some 70,000 needy people around the world.

"People in our congregation became concerned and several came to see me asking if we would do something positive to combat the world hunger situation," said Farris. "We learned that a majority of the world goes to bed hungry and some 10,000 people die every day from starvation."

The program places small coin containers, shaped like miniature loaves of bread, inside parishioners' homes.

"These," explained Farris, "will be kept on the dinner table as a reminder that while we have much, others have little or nothing to eat. I think it would also be a way parents can teach their children compassion."

"As the family prays for the world's needy, they also put coins in the Love Loaf each day. Even the smallest child can participate. His penny will provide a week's supply of vitamins to someone suffering from malnutrition."

A dime will provide someone else with a full meal.

"The youngsters," he continued, "will learn compassion as they put in their pennies and dimes and pray."

The goal of the program is to raise enough money to feed 5,000 people.

Each loaf will hold about $10.

During the Love Loaf program, the church has earmarked half of the money to be given to Inner City Ministries, a missionary organization in Long Beach specializing in helping malnourished persons.

The remaining 50 per cent will go to the emergency relief ministry of World Vision International, the originator of the loaf program.

Broken Marriages— A Costly Arrangement

Some 45,000 folders — all filled with the written record of the anguish which follows a broken marriage — line the walls of District Attorney Ed Miller's Office in the County Courthouse building.

The case files are part of the daily activity of the Family Support Division, a section in Miller's office which enforces the laws relating to child support matters, primarily when a parent has fallen delinquent in child support obligations.

"The Family Support Division is probably the least understood section in my office," Miller said. "It cannot assist in domestic problems and we have to daily direct local residents seeking assistance to private attorneys or the Legal Aid Society."

Last fiscal year, the section handled more than 14,000 complaints and obtained more than $14.3 million in child support payments from absent parents.

"Because of the desire of state and federal officials to reduce the welfare rolls and cut down on the tax dollars which are paid out as aid to dependent children," Miller said, "our office is given incentive funds for the collection of individual child support payments."

"Last fiscal year, those payments from state and federal sources amounted to $5.5 million which was approximately $1.5 million above the cost of operating the division and was applied toward reducing the local tax base by being deposited in the County's general fund."

Miller said because of the volume of cases processed by the 10 attorney section, personalized service to the single parent is somewhat limited.

Child support legal action, which requires the assistance of the custodial parent, takes time, according to Miller.

"We are unable physically to give the type of individual service I would like but, I hope, those parents who need our assistance understand that we are working on their cases even though we are unable to keep them constantly informed of our progress," Miller said.

Because of confusion over what can or cannot be done to assist parents, Miller said he had prepared a booklet describing the function of the Family Support Division.

The booklet can be obtained free of charge by writing: FSD - BOOKLET, c/o District Attorney Ed Miller, 220 W. Broadway, San Diego, CA 92101.

'Fine Comedy' Describes Coronado's 'Owl & Pussycat'

By Susanne Williams

"The Owl and the Pussycat" which opened last week at the Coronado Playhouse is, rich with humor, irony and a touch of the macabre, in short, all the ingredients of a fine comedy.

That is, till Manhoff's play. And, potentially, also the Playhouse production.

Doris Wilgus, the hooker with little education and a golden heart, is well portrayed by Barbara Keel although it takes a few moments to get attuned to her vociferous articulation of grief or anger.

Keel's sense of timing skillfully assure that the play's lighthearted humor remains just that, and her laughter and tears flow easily and convincingly.

Yet, Steve Quinn as Felix Sherman, the bookstore clerk with rather unfounded dreams of a writing career, is somewhat disappointing and does not warm up to his role till late in the play.

L.G. Child Care Day Center Serves Seventy Meals a Day

Approximately 70 meals a day are being served presently at the Christian Day Care of Lemon Grove at the Baptist Church Christian Education bldg., 2920 Main st.

The program, started more than two years ago, provides up to 11 hours a day care every week-day and supplies 3 meals daily for youngsters

2-10 years of age.

Parents are charged $102 a month for the services, according to Lorraine Adams, director of the Care Center.

Youngsters are served a breakfast, lunch and an afternoon snack with the lunch being obtained from school, Adams said.

Care center employees take the students to their school and pick them up.

Some of the funds come from the U.S. Dept. of Food and Nutrition Services. The portion is much less than the income Adams said. Last month the food bill was $700. USD of F&NR paid $200.

The center was started with a loan of $10,000 from resources of the L.G. Baptist church. In the two-plus years of operation, $4,000 has been repaid. The non-profit organization carries a staff of 6, 3 of whom are teachers.

The center is open to all, regardless of race, color or national origin. The center can be reached week-days at 461-2220.

Nutrition Project Needs Volunteers

The Lemon Grove-Spring Valley Nutrition Project for Senior Citizens is in need of volunteers to deliver home delivered meals to project participants who are temporarily ill or recovering from hospitalization.

This Week's RECIPE

Honolulu Chicken

This week's recipe commemorates Hawaii's statehood with Honolulu Chicken. Hawaii became a state on August 21, 1959. The sunny weather, white beaches, flowers, and sumptuous luaus are much the part of the state's character.

Honolulu Chicken is not only easy to prepare, but it tastes like it came from the islands. Served with rice, Polynesian vegetables and plenty of fresh fruit and flowers, the dish will take you on a mini-vacation.

HONOLULU CHICKEN

1 2½ to 3 lb. broiler-fryer, cut up
¼ cup flour
¼ teaspoon salt
cooking oil

1 ten ounce jar of peach preserves
½ cup barbecue sauce
½ cup chopped onion
2 tablespoons soy sauce
1 six ounce can water chestnuts, drained, sliced
1 green pepper, cut into strips hot cooked rice

Coat chicken with seasoned flour; brown in small amount of oil. Drain.

Combine preserves, barbecue sauce, onion and soy sauce; pour over chicken.

Cover; simmer 40 minutes or until chicken is tender, adding green pepper and water chestnuts during the last ten minutes.

Serve over rice. Makes four servings.

Channel Cats Make Good Summer Fishing

Summer is an active season in San Diego, providing many different things for many different people, says the S.D. Park & Rec. Dept.

The mountains from Palomar in the north to Laguna and Cuyamaca in the east host an onslaught of campers, picnickers and hikers.

Surfers, swimmers, and sun-seekers migrate to the beaches during the summer in increasingly large numbers.

It is also an active time on the San Diego City lakes for a small segment of the angling population which pursues channel catfish.

All of the city lakes are providing good catfishing, with Hodges, Sutherland, and Otay rated best for large fish. Smaller cats are hitting well at El Capitan and Miramar.

Cut mackerel and bonito are the top bait overall, being favored by the majority of anglers. Interestingly, mudsuckers are the top bait at Miramar where one angler has taken 5 consecutive limits on mudsuckers.

The state limit is 10 catfish per day.

TAKE FIVE

by John E. Wirges

It isn't likely anyone around remembers "Good Ol' Charlie" Gould, Cam Graffen or Horace Phillips, but those gentlemen helped get the whole thing started. Not just the playing of it, but the thinking of the game, too.

They managed the Reds, Cards and Pirates respectively, back in 1876, about which time the thought processes that passes for reason in the National Pastime were laid down as law.

As the Padres battle through a mid-summer's visit to Cincinnati, St. Louis and Pittsburgh, baseball brass gathered in Kansas City to discuss mutual problems of ownership and management, with both feet planted solidly in the cement of 1876 thinking.

Oh, there'll be some talk of extending the inter-league trading period past the season's start, or thereabouts. It will be something like the National Football League's unloading of marginal talent on the final cut-down where teams of lesser talent can pick up other's rejects because what others cut loose is better than what they have.

Baseball's version would allow management all of spring training to measure its gladiators, then attempt to fill any holes or move unwilling talent into the "other" league as late as April first.

But of and by itself, April Fool's Day trading shouldn't come as any great surprise to baseball observers. A number of trades made almost anytime through the year by almost any club would better lend themselves to that day's special connotation.

Even so, for baseball moguls extending inter-league trading is a sign of progress, even at this late date. The other item on their schedule is not. It's a step backward. It's baseball thinking of the '70s already. The 1870s.

The high cost of expansionism and free agents have baseball brass thinking, of all things, about cutting back on their minor leagues.

"It used to cost about $40,000 to operate a minor league club," judged Padre General Manager Bob Fontaine. "These days you're lucky to get away for $100,000."

Some clubs spend so much elsewhere they haven't got the extra 100-Gs to stock the farm. Something seems wrong with that thinking.

A goodly number of high priced "free" agents are falling flat in their bank books after playing out last year's option and "jumping" into greener pastures. Sal Bando is hitting under .250, Joe Rudi has been out of action with aches and pains and San Diego's own Gene Tenace is missing along at fast .229 clip.

Each of the aforementioned gentlemen were enriched by more than $1 million during over the counter trading in livestock this past winter. None has produced at more than "average" levels.

The "greatest" grab of the free agents, one Reggie Jackson now splendidly garbed in the pin stripes of New York Yankee dollars, is hitting a respectable .290 when not arguing with his manager, but since when is a .290 hitter worth a multi-million dollar contract?

Enough about free enterprise for the moment. Baseball brass dug its own hole by not allowing a free exchange of growth and progress with its employees over its first 100 years of existence. Let them pitch themselves out of this labor jam, if they can.

But to cut back on player development to compete in the open market for marginally producing talent is a civil sacrilege. Baseball moguls who think down those lines ought to be tarred and feathered, which seems a uniquely fitting sentence for such 1870 thinking.

Pump $1 million into any farm system and you'll grow strong and sassy players in good quantity. Expand the farm system and develop players now cut by economics. Neither Stan Musial or Maury Wills would have made it to the Major League under present day minor league judgments.

History records no species surviving that made practice of sacrificing its young in favor of its present. Free agents, notwithstanding.

Pro Wrestlers Booked In 'Grudge Match' Tues.

There's a real grudge wrestling match scheduled for Tuesday at the Coliseum.

It stemmed from an incident Tuesday during the "loser leave town" bout between Chavo Guerrero and Roddy Piper. Guerrero was winning handsily when Big Bad John, at the matches as a spectator, failed to contain himself and began interfering with the wrestlers.

BB John was attempting to turn the tide in favor of Piper so security tossed him out but not before Guerrero challenged him to get into the ring Tuesday night. Therefore, a grudge fight is booked — BB John vs. Chavo Guerrero. And Piper is gone. He didn't say where.

A rematch of the American Tag Team Title bout is booked for Tuesday, too. The Gorman brothers took the champ belts from Mando Guerrero and Tom Jones and the losers want a chance to get the title back. They will get that chance Tuesday. Texas Red meets Victor Rivera and Barry O grapples Bill Ash.

The Coliseum is at 15th and E sts. in downtown San Diego.

Kings to Play Canucks In Arena Pre-Season Game

NHL hockey returns to the Sports Arena, after an absence of six years, Saturday, October 1 at 8 p.m. when the L.A. Kings meet the Vancouver Canucks in a pre-season game.

The joint announcement was made by Phil Quinn, general manager of the Sports Arena and George Maguire, general manager of the Kings. The San Diego Gulls hosted the Kings in a pre-season game prior to the 1972-73 season.

"Due to the persistence of Phil Quinn, and Peter Graham, we have rearranged our pre-season schedule to include San Diego," said Maguire. "We welcome the opportunity to play there and we plan to continue including San Diego in future years."

"I've been amazed since taking over the Kings general manager job the number of calls from San Diego hockey fans asking for schedule and ticket information."

Marcel Dionne and Roger Vachon shine for the Kings while Derek Sanderson and Mike Walton lead the attack for the Canucks. Dionne and Vachon were both named to post-season first team All-Star polls.

Dionne was awarded the Lady Byg trophy and finished as the NHL's second leading scorer last season finishing with a Kings' record 53 goals and 122 points.

Vachon, the Most Valuable Player on Team Canada during the Canada Cup was voted first team goalie by his peers in the SPORTING NEWS poll and by the writers in the HOCKEY NEWS poll.

The controversial Sanderson is one of the premier face-off artists in the National Hockey League and has given the Canucks a boost on the front line.

Walton, one of the speedier players in the NHL and a San Diego visitor during his years in the WHA, was injured a great deal last season, but is being counted on by the Canucks to give them the same scoring punch he did with the Minnesota Fighting Saints.

Tickets are $4.50, $5.50, $6.50 with a $1.50 discount for juniors under 18 and servicemen. Tickets are available at the Sports Arena Box Office, and all Sports Arena Ticket agencies.

August Off-Road Race Draws Best Drivers

RIVERSIDE — An $18,000 invitational race for off-road racing's elite will highlight the fifth annual $200,000 SCORE World Championships of Off-Road Racing August 27-28 at Riverside International Raceway.

Called the Challenge of Champions, it will match super stars Parnelli Jones, Mickey Thompson, Rick and Roger Mears, Ivan Stewart, Malcolm Smith and Fritz Kroyer against other winning drivers conceded to be at least their equal on any given day.

The 10-lap Challenge of Champions, open only to the 18 best drivers in the sport in any four-wheel vehicle, will be staged on Saturday, August 27. Most of the same drivers will race in their regular class championship events that day or the next.

Others entered in the Challenge of Champions are Pancho Weaver, Greg George, Clark Bingham, Martin Tajra, Dennis Keefe, Bob Gordon, Marty and Danny Letner, Bob Rodine, Jim Taber and Clyde Jennings.

The one-of-a-kind race will be the Saturday feature, while Sunday's action will be highlighted by the four-wheel-drive and pickup truck race, motorcycles and the single-seat dune buggy main event. Altogether, more than 250 competitors are expected to race over the newly shortened two-mile obstacle course, which has 14 recognizable turns and a random variety of bumps, water hazards, hills and ditches to negotiate.

Toughest sections are the legendary Thompson Ridge, a fallaway curving straightaway that causes wheels to claw the air and cars to roll over frequently, and a new hill dubbed the Pennzoil Obstacle that has been placed in front of a spectator grandstand.

The Riverside World Championships provide spectators with their only opportunity in any given year to watch an entire professional off-road event from grandstand comfort.

Del Mar Tennis Bash To Aid Retired Jocks

Horsemen and celebrities will be pitted against each other Sunday, August 28 when they battle on the courts of Winners Circle Tennis Club.

The occasion is the Third Annual Bacharach-Shotemaker HBPA Celebrity-Charity Tennis Bash to benefit Las Casitas, the Horsemen's Benevolent & Protective Assn.'s Retirement Home.

Hosted by Bacharach and Shoemaker, and Tommie Cook, it is sponsored by Winners Circle Tennis Club and HBPA. The executive committee, Doug Atkins, Rollin and Bonnie Bough, all of HBPA, and Carol Watkins, WCTC, along with Jim Watkins and Charlie Pennington, coordinators, (WCTC), have planned a day which spectators will long remember.

The horsemen, including such well-known names as jockeys Shoemaker, Donald Pierce, Danny Valasquez, and Tony Diaz, will play Tuesday, August 23, to determine who will go up against the celebrities.

Saturday, August 27, the celebrities, including Wayne Rogers, Desi Arnaz, Jr., Harvey Korman, Rob and Carl Reiner, and Vincent Van Patten, will meet on the courts to see who will play the horsemen.

Sunday's play, beginning at 8 a.m. and continuing all day, will be open to the public and will include surprise exhibitions.

All monies from the Bash will benefit the HBPA's Las Casitas, the retirement home for racetrackers. This home was originally a small complex of two bungalows and two duplexes located on a residential street just off Camino del Mar in Del Mar.

However, the number of residents has grown so that some are now housed in other locations throughout the area. Hopefully, HBPA's spacious new facility in Rancho California will soon be under construction.

This unusual institution is operated by the HBPA of California and is home to backstretchers who because of age, illness, or disabling injuries are unable to work at the tracks and do not have the money to support themselves.

Norton in Exhibition, Too

State Heavyweight Title Fight Friday

Howard "K.O." Smith lost his heavyweight title when the State Athletic Commission decided he didn't defend it on schedule. That title is up for grabs Friday night at the S.D. Coliseum when former champion "K.O." Smith meets "Sweet Charlie" Brown in a 12-round bruiser.

Kenny Norton, everybody's favorite heavyweight scrapper, will put on a 3-round exhibition bout. He'll probably go against Bossman Jones, his nominal sparring partner.

Heavyweight Dave Wynne of Chula Vista returns to the fray against "Jumbo" Charles Baker of L.A. Baker is in at 250 lbs.

Popular welterweight Gregg Stevens returns to the Coliseum for a fight with Kenny Croomes.

Another bout is still in the making.

The card opens at 8:15. The Coliseum is at 15th and E

sts. in downtown San Diego.

Last Week

Renato Garcia, who headlined last week's card, earned a unanimous decision over Oakland's Jose Gonsalves in 10 rounds.

Garcia is Chile's middleweight champion and his record at the Coliseum is 12-1 over the years.

Gonsalves is state champion and except for a rally in the late rounds by Garcia, he might have won. The pair fought to a draw in Oakland last month.

Bobby Epps, a 19-year old middleweight prospect of New Mexico and L.A. took a unanimous 6-round decision from Teddy Sanders of L.A.

Ricky Gibbs was decked by Curtis Lewis, both of L.A., in a 5-round middleweight scrap. Lewis dropped Gibbs at 2:05 of the first round with a powerful right to the jaw.

David Portillo, a lightweight of Torrance, won a unanimous decision over Guillermo Gonzales of L.A.

L.G. Rec. League

Hicks, Snelling, Guys to Beat at South Bay Track

It continues to be the Hicks and Snelling Show at South Bay Park Speedway 117's quarter-mile race track much to the chagrin of the opposition.

But those race fans are getting their kicks with a chance to participate in the night's proceedings.

And they'll all be doing their thing again Friday night when the sanctioning South Bay Racing Assn. stages another doubleheader of super and street stocks. Trials for the supers start at 7 and the first event gets underway at 8:30 p.m.

But the boys will have to try some new methods to stop Don Hicks and Ken Snelling, though.

Hicks is bidding for his 4th in a row as he continues to increase his street stock points lead. He has won 10 main events this year.

And Snelling will chase after his fourth straight. He has won seven mains.

Meanwhile, last week's fan participant didn't find it quite as easy. Steve Randall of Spring Valley, spun on the fourth lap of the street stock feature and was tapped by ex-drag racer Wayne Bollin.

Randall finished the race but was a bit cautious after the spin. He was lapped twice in 20 laps.

The winning ticket number again will enable someone from the stands to be outfitted with helmet and car.

John Cartwright of Spring Valley managed to gain a few more points on Jim Pavlick, also of Spring Valley, in the title race by placing fourth.

$50,000 Added Del Mar Derby On Saturday Card

The three-year-old champion of the 1977 Del Mar racing season will be crowned Sunday when the $50,000-added Del Mar Derby is renewed at a mile and one-eighth over the seaside track's infield grass course.

Preceding the Del Mar Derby on the week's slate of stakes events will be the $25,000-added Palomar Handicap for older fillies and mares Saturday.

Seeking his third stakes triumph of the meeting in the Derby will be Howard B. Keck's Stone Point, a talented son of Tell, conditioned by Charlie Whittingham. Stone Point opened his season by easily accounting for a division of the Oceanside Stakes and underscored that win with a more recent success in the La Jolla Mile. In the latter race, Stone Point defeated Pay the Toll by one length in 1:35 4/5 for the distance.

Confronting Stone Point in the Derby will be Elmendorf's Text, who has been trying the best of his division throughout 1977. The chestnut son of Speak John, who will be making his first start of the summer season, won the Argonaut Handicap over Bad 'n Big. He then finished third to J. O. Tobin in the Swaps Stakes, being nosed out for second by Affiliate but winding up eight lengths in front of Triple Crown champion Seattle Slew who was sustaining the first loss of his career.

Other Derby prospects include Pay the Toll, winner of the first division of the Ocean-side Stakes; stakes-winning Grey Moon Runner, Hill Fox, a stablemate of J. O. Tobin; Abe the Great and Yack Yack.

Winners will also receive travel allowances.

Tickets for the DU party, considered one of the city's top social affairs, are $50 each, $40 of which is a tax-deductible contribution to Ducks Unlimited.

Following a complimentary cocktail hour, a gourmet dinner of boneless breast of capon, wild rice and wine will be served. A new wildlife movie on waterfowl migration will have its premier showing.

Padres Travel Until August 26

The San Diego Padres will close out road competition against members of the National League's Eastern Division for the 1977 campaign with visits to St. Louis and Pittsburgh as the club completes its second trip of the month.

The Padres, who opened the jaunt with three games in Cincinnati against the Reds are scheduled to wrap things up with three single games with the hot St. Louis Cardinals on Friday through Sunday, and then a pair of contests with the Pittsburgh Pirates Monday and Tuesday.

The Pirates, of course, have been equally as hot as the Cardinals as the two clubs have joined forces with the defending Eastern Division champion Philadelphia Phillies and the Chicago Cubs to make a four-team race for the title in the other division.

Saturday's game in St. Louis with the Cardinals will mark the Padres third live telecast within a five-day period as XETV (Channel 6) will be sending the game back to San Diego beginning at 5 p.m. Regular Padre announcers Jerry Coleman and Bob Chandler will, as usual, handle the play-by-play of the game.

"We are still very much in the fight for a first division finish in the West," said Padres skipper Alvin Dark. "The way things are shaping up, it's going to go right down to the final two weeks of the season before the final positions are firmed up."

"The thing we have to avoid for a runner-up position is letting either the Giants or Astros slip away from us and we've really got our work cut out through September 6 (a total of 19 games) we have nothing on the schedule but five clubs who are in the thick of the battle for a divisional championship."

The present road swing will all but close out the Padres away activity for the year as during September the club has only 10 games on the road with only five of them being out of the state.

After the current swing, the Padres will be opening up a big 11-game homestand which will, briefly, feature the Pittsburgh Pirates (August 26-27-28), St. Louis Cardinals (August 29-30-31), Chicago Cubs (September 2-3-4) and the Los Angeles Dodgers (September 5-6).

Giants (1-1) Here for 6 p.m. Game

Chargers Cut Stadium Birthday Cake Sat.

What may be the largest celebration in San Diego history will take place Saturday night, when San Diego Stadium observes its 10th birthday and the San Diego Chargers and New York Giants meet in a pre-season NFL game that begins at 6 p.m.

The first 20,000 persons entering the Stadium will receive a fine art print Chargers poster.

The first 30,000 persons entering the Stadium will receive a piece of San Diego Stadium birthday cake, compliments of the S.D. Retail Bakers Assn.

Bands will perform before the game and at halftime. San Diego Mayor Pete Wilson will be on the field at halftime for a special presentation and a giant fireworks display will take place at the end of the game.

The August 20th game with the Giants comes 10 years to the day the Stadium was dedicated. The Chargers met the Detroit Lions August 20, 1967 and were beaten 38-17 in the American Football League Chargers' first game with an NFL team.

The Chargers will enter the Giants' game with a 1-1 pre-season record. They defeated the San Francisco 49ers 32-13 last week as running back Joe Washington scored two touchdowns, one on an 89-yard punt return. The Chargers' point total was their highest for a pre-season game since a 38-27 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in a Cleveland Municipal Stadium doubleheader September 5, 1970.

Looking Back

Rick Smith, Chargers public relations director, provided some highlights of seasons past.

Thet Chargers' first touchdown in San Diego Stadium came with 10 seconds elapsed of the fourth quarter in the game with Detroit. John Hadl threw a 28-yard pass to Gary Garrison, who broke away from Lions defenders to complete a 61-yard play.

The Chargers' first touchdown in San Diego Stadium was a 28-14 triumph over the Boston Patriots September 9, 1967, in the AFL regular season opener.

The Chargers' Leslie (Speedy) Duncan set an AFL record with a 100-yard pass interception return for a touchdown against Kansas City October 15, 1967, as the Chargers won 45-31 in a game in which both teams amassed 897 total yards and another 562 in returns.

The first sellout crowd in San Diego Stadium came December 3, 1967, when 52,661 persons saw Oakland defeat the Chargers 41-21.

Duncan set an AFL record when he returned a punt 95 yards for a touchdown in a 37-15 loss to the Super Bowl championship-bound New York Jets November 24, 1968.

Garrison caught 10 passes for 188 yards and 2 touchdowns as the Chargers defeated the Super Bowl champion Jets 34-27 September 28, 1969.

Bambi

Alworth set a professional record by catching a pass in his ninety-sixth consecutive game as the Chargers defeated Buffalo 45-6 December 14, 1969, in the final game of the season and on the final weekend of the NFL.

As a fire burned more than 280,000 acres in East San Diego County, blowing apocalyptic winds and clouds over the Stadium, John Hadl hurled fourth quarter bombs to Jeff Queen and Alworth for touchdowns that tied Oakland 27-27 September 27, 1970.

A crowd of 54,611 persons represented the largest in Stadium history as Oakland defeated the Chargers 21-19 December 3, 1972.

Quarterback Johnny Unitas completed a flare pass to Mike Garret that gained 28 yards and made Unitas the first man to surpass 40,000 yard passing in a career September 30, 1973.

Don Woods ran for 105 yards to set an NFL rookie rushing record and an all-time club record of 1,162 for one season as the Chargers defeated Denver 17-0 December 15, 1974.

The Chargers exploded for 27 points in the second quarter and defeated favored St. Louis 43-24 September 26, 1976.

HydroRacer Selected To Hall of Champions

Hydroplane racing ace Bill Muncy and golfers LuLong Hartley and Doug Clarke have been selected by the San Diego Hall of Champions Board of Trustees as the area's Stars of the Month for July.

Generally considered one of the greatest drivers in the history of his sport, La Mesa Muncy guided his Atlas Van Lines thunderbolt to victory in a regatta at Owensboro, Ky. and climaxed the month by becoming the first man to capture six Gold Cups as he swept the Columbia River regatta at Pasco, Wash. In the latter competition Muncy led in all four events and established new Gold Cup speed records in each of them.

Miss Hartley, daughter of Camp Pendleton pro Bill Hartley, won three important links titles during the month. She wrapped up the L.A. Women's Amateur tourney, then took the California State Junior Girls' Championship by a four-stroke margin and topped off her spree by winning her division in the Junior World Championship at Torrey Pines.

Clarke, a former La Jolla High athlete now attending Stanford, came from behind to score a one-under-par 287 and win the S.Cal Amateur tournament from a field which included such standouts as Curt Worley, Scott Simpson and Brett Mullin.

The Hall of Champions also granted Certificates of Achievement to five others. Padre outfielder George Hendrick was recognized for his July batting streak which produced 31 hits, three homers and 15 RBIs and boosted his average to .304, while Dr. E. F. "Bud" Muehleisen was honored for winning the National Outdoor three-way senior racquetball tournament and then adding both singles and doubles events in the Canadian Open.

Padres Card Game on TV

Saturday's Padre-Cardinal game will be carried live from Busch Memorial Stadium in St. Louis by XETV-Channel 6.

Television coverage begins at 5 p.m. with Jerry Coleman and Bob Chandler handling play-by-play and color.

McIntyre Wins 5th in a Row; 36th Career Main

Pat McIntyre may have things just about sewed up at Cajon Speedway this season, but there's still a lot of questions to be answered in the six remaining regular season races.

The 35-year old Spring Valley construction worker will be seeking his 36th main event win and his 5th main event victory in a row Saturday night on the 3/8 mile paved oval. Another win would just about clinch the 1977 title for him. He previously has won four championships in the El Cajon Stock Car Racing Assn., winning out in 1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976.

Race time Saturday night for 60 expected entries is 8 o'clock with qualifying runs being held at 6:30. The racing card calls for the traditional four-lap trophy dash for the evening's four fastest qualifiers, four 8-lap heat races, a 10 lap consolation, a 20-lap semi, and the 40-lap main event.

McIntyre has opened up a 925 point bulge over his nearest rival, Mike Hagerman, and Hagerman will be trying Saturday night to get things untracked. Last week the El Cajon businessman qualified for the semi and earned no points for the evening. Two weeks ago Hagerman was the victim of two accidents.

Ed Hale made a big move last week by finishing fourth in the feature, and now trails Hagerman by only 340 points. Two weeks ago before the start of Hagerman's bad luck string, he had a 455 point margin over Hale.

New Ball Game

How or when table tennis originated is not known but the game became popular during the last half of the 19th century. The celluloid ball was brought out in the 1890s.

Beach Festival To Aid MD Drive

What do wheelchair athletes, Mr. Universe, bikined girls on roller skates, a $2-billion corporation, skateboarders, a radio station, sailors and marines, a bicycle brigade, entertainers and Belmont Park all have in common?

It's the "First Annual Beach Festival and Wheelathon for Muscular Dystrophy," set all day August 28 on the South Mission peninsula.

Non-motorized vehicles of all types — bicycles, tricycles, skateboards, rollerskates, buggies and wheelchairs — will go around a set course to raise money for the Muscular Dystrophy Association of San Diego. Sponsors will pledge donations for kilometers completed.

Meanwhile, on the beach at the foot of Ventura Place, body-builders will use their "Muscles for MDA." The star will be Lou Ferrigno, the reigning "Mr. Universe," 6-foot-5, 275 pounds, who will raise money for each pound lifted. "Best build" contests for males and females will be held.

Also scheduled: an array of local mimes, musicians, jugglers, and other entertainers strolling up and down the boardwalk, plus wheelchair athletes demonstrating their skills.

Registration for the wheelathon begins at 6:30 a.m. across Ventura Place from Hamel's Bike and Surf Shop, which will loan some 500 pairs of rollerskates free to participants in the "Wheelathon."

Other sponsors are 7-Eleven stores, Magic-91 Radio, Square Pan Pizza, 7-Up, the San Diego Hilton Hotel, All-American Gym, Ektelon, and Air California, many of whom have donated prizes for such categories as "Biggest Money-Raiser," "Most Original Wheel-er Vehicle," and "Most Kilometers Covered."

Additional support is coming from beach merchants who are challenging each other to see who will raise the most money, OMBAC, and the disabled services division of the city's Park & Recreation Department.

Sponsor sheets for the event may be obtained at the 145 7-Eleven stores in San Diego County.

Minority Recruits Sought For Jobs By S.D. Sheriff

Two deputy sheriffs, a man and a woman, have been designated by Sheriff John F. Duffy to work full-time for the next few weeks to recruit minorities to participate in an upcoming Deputy Sheriff's examination.

The deputies are Sylvester Washington, currently a patrol deputy at the Lemon Grove Sheriff's Station, and Pippa Gonsalves, assigned to the Central Jail. Washington performed a similar function 18 months ago, prior to the last time the deputy sheriff's examination was given.

Duffy said Washington and Gonsalves will be working with members of the county personnel department in an effort to raise the percentage of minorities and women in county government.

The two deputies will concentrate their efforts in the schools, through churches, community agencies, personal contacts, mailing lists and the news media, according to the sheriff.

"I am convinced there are plenty of qualified minority and women candidates throughout the county. But we have to first reach them, then convince them that if they are qualified they can have an excellent career ahead of them in this department," Duffy said.

Kostelanetz Returns

Andre Kostelanetz, recipient of many citations and "champion of recordings" according to Newsweek magazine, will conduct the S.D. Symphony Orchestra for three performances at S.D. State University's Aztec Bowl (August 26), the Green Rancho Bernardo (August 27) and Kimball Park, National City (August 28).

The performances feature cannons, mortars and fireworks; it will include "The Damnation of Faust", "L'Arlesienne" and "Carmen" suites, and the overtures to "Orpheus in the Underworld" and "Gaiete Parisienne".

Two Jamul Students Delegates to F.H.A.

Sheri Snively and Gay Nierodzinski, both of Jamul, were selected as delegates from San Diego County to attend the National Convention of F.H.A. (Future Homemakers of America). These girls are seniors at Valhalla High school and are members of the Valhalla chapter of F.H.A.

Snively also holds the office of Vice President at the Regional level.

During the week long convention, which was held in Seattle, Washington, the girls attended the many leadership training sessions, several nice banquets, and had time for some sightseeing.

Mail Bag Rezone Alarm

As owners of property along Grand ave., Spring Valley, we are up in arms over a proposed zone change that would downgrade our "C" zoning to high-density residential.

Our group, consisting of "C" and adjacent residential property owners, has collected well over 500 signatures to stop this apparent devaluation.

The script: July 11, Board of Supervisors met to consider a recommendation of the Citizen's Executive Committee to rezone much of Grand ave. property from "C" to high density residential. CEC is made up of people who do not live near and who own little, if any property, in the area.

The Board of Supervisors had voted 4-1 to make no change.

The matter was spent to the Planning Commission to continue it as "C".

August 3, CEC put the matter back on their agenda determined to downgrade it to high density against the will of the owners.

August 11, the Planning Commission at an open meeting refused to acknowledge the agenda item concerning Grand ave. The referred the matter back to the Supervisors.

The Grand Avenue Commercial Property Owners are disturbed by the determined effort of the public bodies to decrease property values, personal incomes by arbitrarily invoking laws which cause great hardship on many and provide little benefit to anyone.

Therefore our group and a number of residential property owners are having an open meeting tonight at 7:30 in the Moose Lodge bldg., 760 Grand ave., to decide what policy we must pursue to stem the determined effort to rezone Grand ave.

The Board of Supervisors is scheduled to consider this matter again on August 25 and our group is equally determined to stop this communistic-type determination. Other property owners of the area are invited to take part.

Moore's Force to Report to Sups on Railroad Issue

The County of San Diego must act to insure the continuation of freight service to San Diego customers along the San Diego and Arizona Eastern Railway, according to Supervisor Lucille V. Moore.

Moore is the chairman of a task force of government and civic organizations studying the abandonment issue.

"Despite assurance from Southern Pacific and Santa Fe that 'some' will provide service, the abandonment does not guarantee continuous freight service to SD & AE rail users," Moore said.

"In fact, given the price reportedly being asked by the Southern Pacific and the failure to date of a potential buyer to meet that price, the possibility of a temporary discontinuance or elimination of service must not be overlooked."

"At a minimum, the County may find it necessary to oppose the abandonment in the absence of a responsible operator filing a petition to provide service." The county will also protest the sale prior to ICC hearings of any SD & AE land that is needed for rail operations.

Moore said the staff report to the Board of Supervisors will be completed by August 24 and docketed for the September 6 agenda.

LG Man Suffers Burns From Carb Backfire

A carburetor backfire caused first and second degree burns on a 19-year old Lemon Grove man last week as he tried to pour gasoline while a friend started the engine.

Rushed to the burn center in University Hospital was Jerry Sprately of 7407 North ave.

Sprately was pouring gasoline from a beer can into his stalled truck's carburetor while a friend tried to start the engine.

The engine backfired, igniting the gasoline and Sprately's clothing.

A fire extinguisher was used to put the fire out on Sprately's body but not before he received first and second degree burns on his right arm, shoulder, chest and face.

A University Hospital Burn Center nurse said Friday Sprately's condition was stable and he should be released sometime this week.

Loot Includes Gun

A .25 cal. chrome, semi-auto gun was among the items taken from the home of Howard J. Von Recht of 3702 Fenwick dr., Spring Valley, on August 10.

Von Recht, who is in the auto body repair business, was at work when the burglary occurred.

In addition to the gun — a Bauer — jewelry and cash brought the total of the loss to $1,855, he told sheriff's deputies.

Water Authority Joins Wastewater Reclaim Project

The S.D. County Water Authority should participate as a member of the management team for a $500,000 study of wastewater reclamation, the agency's board of directors decided Thursday.

Because the Authority does not build or operate sewer systems, the board proposed that S.D. County's Sanitation and Flood Control Department should be the administrative agency for the project.

Other management team members recommended were S.D. City Utilities Department, which operates both the water and sewer systems, and the Comprehensive Planning Organization (CPO).

An advisory committee, which might include the S.D. Region Water Reclamation Joint Powers Agency and the Santa Margarita, San Luis Rey Water Shed Agency, was also recommended.

As the agency responsible for distribution of wholesale quantities of water within the County, the Water Authority is the logical organization to distribute reclaimed wastewater, the board concluded.

"The current and long-range water supply problems require full consideration of any and all alternative sources," commented Leonard Zanville, chairman of the Citizens Committee to Save Water.

"Although health officials take a dim view of reclaimed water in a domestic supply system, there are probably many ways in which this source could be used without creating problems," he said.

To serve as distributor of water from any local source, the Authority must have it enabling act changed by the State Legislature. Authorization for the general manager to seek such a change was granted by the board in separate action.

REGAL — Newell Tarrant is the "King" and Diane Lloyd is "Anna" in "The King and I" opening next week at Starlight in Balboa Park.

'King & I' Opens August 25 Final Starlight Season Show

Starlight will open "The King & I", its third show of the summer season August 25 in the Starlight Bowl under the stars in Balboa Park.

One of the most lovely musicals ever written by the successful team of Rodgers & Hammerstein and consequently one of the most popular.

"The King & I" features Newell Tarrant as the King of Siam and Diane Lloyd as Anna Leonowens, the school teacher. Tarrant was last seen as Henry Higgins in "My Fair Lady" and Lloyd as Fiona in "Brigadoon" — both in 1975.

Katherine Kennedy plays

Tuptim the slave girl brought to the King as a gift by her ill fated lover. Emissary Lun Tha is played by Jim Stein. Lady Thiang, the King's head wife is Rebecca Reyes and the Kralahome is played by Bob Papenbrook.

Among the Rodgers and Hammerstein tunes in "King & I" are such favorites as "Getting to Know You", "Shall We Dance?", "I Whistle a Happy Tune", "Hello Young Lovers", "Something Wonderful", "We Kiss in a Shadow", "March of the Siamese Children", "I Have Dreamed", "My Lord and Master" and others.

"The King & I" was first presented on Broadway in 1956 and ran for 1,246 performances. It is playing to packed houses in New York where it is already Broadway's highest grossing production earning more than either "Chorus Line" or "Annie", two other smash musicals now playing there.

With this production Starlight will be presenting "The King & I" for the fifth time, having previously performed it in 1956, 1958, 1963, and 1971.

Tickets are on sale at the Starlight box office in front of the Starlight Bowl in Balboa Park from noon to 6 p.m. daily, including Saturday and Sunday and also at all Ticketron outlets.

AG Job to Open

Written examinations for commercial applicators of restricted pesticides are offered at no cost by the Department of Food and Agriculture at Sacramento.

Applicators supervise the use of those pesticides which, under a recent Federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act, are classified as restricted.

A current list of restricted materials which can cause adverse effects to the environment can be obtained from the department.

Restricted materials can also be used by private applicators who can be certified by their county agricultural commissioner before obtaining their permits.

Hospital Beds
If applications are pursued a public hearing will be held on 2 Notices of Intent received by the California Department of Health from the S.D. area.

S.D. County wishes to convert 49 skilled nursing beds to intermediate care/developmentally disabled beds at a cost of $13,025. La Mesa wants to reclassify 57 beds at no additional cost.

VA Checks Will Be Mailed Straight To Your Bank

Veterans and dependents receiving monthly VA disability compensation or pension checks will soon be able to have their payments credited directly to their checking or savings account, under the Veterans Administration Direct Deposit program.

The program will be effective nationwide with checks dated October 1, 1977.

Under Direct Deposit, pension or compensation payments are forwarded by the VA directly to any bank, savings bank, savings and loan association or similar institution, or to any federal or state chartered credit union.

The VA stresses however, that the program does not include VA education payments. It's all part of the VA's participation in a sophisticated computer program called Electronic Funds Transfer.

To take advantage of the program, VA beneficiaries should contact their financial institution and complete Direct Deposit form SF-1199A. These forms will be available at all financial institutions taking part in the program.

Completion of the form authorizes only deposits to the veteran's or dependent's account. It does not authorize any withdrawals.

Those taking part in the program are cautioned to keep the Veterans Administration informed of any change in home or mailing address, since only the benefit payment itself will be forwarded to the financial institution.

Veterans and dependents are urged to contact their financial institution or the Veterans Administration Regional Office at 2022 Camino Del Rio North in Mission Valley.

The VA telephone number is 297-8220, or toll free, 1-800-532-3811.

Joblessness Up in July; Yet Totals Show Declines

California's seasonally adjusted unemployment rate was 7.4 percent in July, up from 6.9 percent in June.

Unemployment has been declining in past months and the jobless totals are the lowest in 30 months.

A year ago the rate was 8.8 percent. The number of unemployed was estimated to be 767,300 in July, down by 21,300 from June.

This was the lowest number of unemployed since December, 1974, when it was 724,400. At that time, however, the unemployment rate was 8.4 percent because the total labor force was lower by more than 800,000.

The estimate of employment in July was 9,267,300. This was a decline of 30,300 over the month and was more than accounted for by a seasonal reduction of 90,000 in education employment.

However, over the year since July, 1976, the number of jobholders has increased by 380,800.

The figures show that the construction industry set a new employment record in July for the second consecutive month.

The previous record was four years ago, in September, 1973, when construction peaked at 384,500.

Employment declined through the 1974-75 recession, recovering in 1976 but falling short of the 1973 record.

Since January of this year, growth in construction employment has been more vigorous than at any time in the past five years and in July a new record of 379,900 was reached.

Aerospace

The aerospace industry showed a net decline in employment from 451,100 in June to 450,700 in July.

This takes account of 2,341 Rockwell Corporation layoffs up to week ending July 19 (the week of the survey) because of the cancellation of the B-1 Bomber contract.

More than a million jobs have been filled in California since the trough of the recent recession in March, 1975.

Total employment increased by 1,038,200 (from 8,229,100 to 9,267,300) while unemployment decreased by 175,500 (from 942,800 to 767,300).

Construction Changes Traffic Flow on 5, 15

The second in a series of traffic changes is now in effect — in the vicinity of the Routes 5-15 interchange, according to Tom Drane, CALTRANS Seniors Resident Engineer.

While the new southbound lanes of Route 15 (Wabash Blvd.) are being reconstructed, motorists will be shifted to a portion of the northbound lanes between Oceanview Blvd. and 32nd St.

Motorists headed south on Route 15 for Main St. or Route 5 to the south bay area will use the newly completed Route 15 viaduct.

Direct access to National Ave. from Route 15 has been eliminated. Motorists should now exit at Oceanview Blvd. and use 32nd or 35th sts. to reach National Ave.

The Main St. on-ramp to Route 15 northbound is also being reopened. The signal at this location has been modified to provide both east and westbound Main St. traffic access to Route 15.

To gain access to I-5 north from southbound Route 15, motorists will have to exit at Oceanview Blvd. and take 32nd St. and National Ave. to I-5 north.

Southbound I-5 traffic destined for Main St. will exit the freeway approximately one-half mile sooner on a new ramp.

"The elimination of the traffic signal at National Ave. and Route 15 (Wabash Blvd.) and the new high-speed ramp from Route 15 to I-5 southbound will greatly improve the traffic flow at the 5-15 interchange," Drane said.

The next planned traffic change which includes the elimination of the Oceanview Blvd. signal on Route 15, will occur early in November. This work is part of the $15.9 million project to reconstruct the Route 5-15 interchange, scheduled for completion next spring.

Assessments Must Be Appealed by Sept. 15

Property owners who wish to contest the assessed valuation of their homes must do so before September 15.

Iris Sankey, Member, State Board of Equalization, has reminded property owners appeals received after the final filing date cannot be considered.

Sankey said if property owners have not yet received notice of the assessed value of their property, they may obtain the necessary information from the office of the county assessor.

Ordinarily that information can be given by phone or mail if owners can identify their property accurately, preferably by parcel number.

Property owners may contest the assessor's full value estimate if they believe it is too high.

Except for land in the open space program, "full value" is defined as the price a willing and knowledgeable seller could obtain for the property from a willing and knowledgeable buyer.

To contest the assessor's full value most effectively, Sankey advised property owners to learn the market values of comparable properties in their respective neighborhoods.

She also cautioned owners that they cannot expect relief merely because taxes are generally high or because the current assessed value is considerably higher than last year's.

The current assessed value must be excessive relative to what the property was worth on the statutory lien date of March 1, 1977.

Appeal forms may be obtained from the clerk of each county board of supervisors. The phone number is 236-2121.

Ask Your C.H.P.

CHP Capt. C.M. Douglas

Last week's answer said motorists could not park "beat up" autos in front of houses for longer than 72 hours.

If you have a question, no matter how insignificant it may appear to you, ask it. It may save you a citation — or even your life.

Write in care of this newspaper. You do not have to sign the letter and please allow about three weeks for the reply to appear.

This Week's Question:

Lately I've noticed that a lot of cars are breaking down on the freeway. What should I do if I have to leave my car on the freeway?

This Week's Answer:

First of all, make sure that your vehicle doesn't present a hazard to other traffic. If you wish to leave your car to go for assistance, be sure to lock your car. You can leave your vehicle for up to four hours. After four hours your vehicle will be towed away.

Business Tax Booklet

The Internal Revenue Service, familiar with many of the problems that can surface in the life of a business owner, has a word of advice: Don't let an occasional concentration of business responsibilities cause you to miss a federal tax deadline.

Since businesspersons have a responsibility to be aware of the reporting, depositing and filing requirements governing their particular business, the IRS annually prepares a tax calendar for business taxpayers, listing the predictable due dates for various actions.

This tax calendar is contained in the free IRS Publication 334, "Tax Guide for Small Business," available from all IRS local offices. The publication may also be obtained by calling the IRS' forms-ordering telephone lines. From Area Code 213, the number is 572-7814. From Area Codes 714 and 905, taxpayers should dial 1-800-242-4585 or 1-800-242-4586.

FAA Changes Rules

The Department of Transportation's Federal Aviation Administration has changed its rules to permit the use of smaller registration markings on most light single-engine aircraft, including antique and exhibition aircraft.

Under the amended rules, identification ("N") numbers as small as three inches can be used on aircraft that have design, structural and operating speeds of less than 180 knots. These markings may be displayed either on the vertical tail or the side of the fuselage. The tail markings may be either horizontal or vertical.

There is no change in the requirements for registration markings on other aircraft. They still must have 12-inch markings horizontally on either the tail or fuselage.

State Readies $3.89 Million In Property Tax Exemptions

The homeowner's exemption for those who pay property tax will be granted to 3.89 million California households this year.

Iris Sankey, Member, State Board of Equalization, announced today that this figure represents a growth during the past year of 130,900 homeowners qualify for this exemption, and coincides closely with the number of new single-family dwellings built during that period.

Sankey said that since 1973 the law has provided for the exemption for $1,750 of assessed value or $7,000 of full cash value for each qualifying homeowner.

Bike Anti-Theft Tips

The increasing number of bicycle thefts can be reduced by owners when following a few crime resistance steps.

Bicycles should be registered with appropriate local agencies, and the driver's license number, preceded by California's initials, should be etched on the vehicles' frames.

In addition, if left unattended, especially overnight, bicycles should be secured to a solid fixed rack or tree with a quality chain loop through the frame and both wheels.

Ear Trouble

Did you ever spray or dust flea powder over your pet, only to discover that your pet still scratches its ears as much as before? Maybe your pet's problem is ear mites, not fleas.

Ear mites are small, almost invisible eight-legged creatures that live inside the ear canal of both cats and dogs.

Like fleas and ticks, ear mites pierce the skin to feed on the pet's blood and body fluids.

Unfortunately, the skin lining the ear canal is very sensitive, and can soon become inflamed and intensely itchy. Your pet will scratch constantly in an attempt to dislodge these pests.

Besides irritating the pet, mites also interfere with normal wax production in the ear. This condition favors the development of bacterial and fungal infections that can cause inflammation extending past the eardrum into the brain. This kind of secondary infection can be fatal.

Although mites are almost too small to see, dark, crumbly debris in the ear is characteristic of their presence.

The frantic ear scratching and head shaking of most afflicted pets is also an obvious clue. In long-established cases of ear mite infestation your pet may even develop a bald spot of red, scaly skin behind the ear where the hair has been rubbed off.

An ear infection is not a condition that responds to home remedies.

Your pet's ears are very sensitive, and you might cause considerable damage to the eardrum trying to clean out the canal. Pouring water or sweet oil into the ear to kill the mites rarely kills them all and only encourages additional complications.

Proper treatment consists of washing out the debris with an insecticidal preparation that will kill the mites.

There are prescriptions which will kill the mites, control the accompanying fungus or bacteria, and remove the waxy deposits that encourage their presence.

The treatment must be repeated weekly until mites appearing from newly-hatched eggs are also killed. Sometimes pets are reinfected by mites that have dropped off onto bedding. To prevent reinfection, all bedding should be thoroughly aired and washed.

Ear mites are seen most often in dogs, especially breeds with long, heavy ears. Although cats are less susceptible to this problem because of their shorter ear canal a dry crusty dirty ear is almost a sure sign of mite infection in either animal.

About Your Income Tax

LOS ANGELES — Although 1977 is more than half over, this is an excellent time for taxpayers to review their federal income tax withholding rates, according to an announcement from the Internal Revenue Service.

The announcement urges such a review because some taxpayers were surprised this year that they had to pay federal tax in addition to that withheld from their wages during 1976.

Too often taxpayers do not realize that they will owe more tax until they prepare their tax returns. If the tax is a few dollars more, it may not be a problem, but if a person finds that it will be $100 or more, this could be a hardship.

The taxpayers also could incur a penalty for failure to pay estimated tax.

IRS officials suggest that taxpayers review their withholding now and compare it with the tax they had to pay with their last return to be certain that enough money will be withheld by the end of 1977.

If the amount is too low, the officials suggest that taxpayers may want to increase the amount being withheld for federal taxes or file Form 1040-ES, "Declaration of Estimated Tax for Individuals," and make estimated tax payments.

In some cases taxpayers who suddenly realize that they owe more tax have difficulty paying on time, the tax officials say.

The law provides rather stiff penalties for late payment or non-payment of taxes. However, there are administrative procedures that, under certain circumstances, permit taxpayers to work out their problem with the IRS.
